Bob's sailing career started when he was a child and first became active in boating. A native Californian, Bob had a long and distinguished career as a banking executive. He came from Los Angeles to Santa Barbara in 1977 to serve as the chief financial officer for a local bank. In 1972, he acquired his Morgan 42, Promises Promises, and with it won the Hollister Trophy in 1985 and the Charles D. Wiman Memorial trophy in 1986. Bob married his wife Michelle in 1988, and after spending more than 40 years in the banking industry, he retired in 2005 to the San Diego area.
