Jim Pattillo 1984

1944-

Jim graduated from Stanford University and Stanford Law School. He started as an attorney in Salt Lake City before returning to Santa Barbara in 1971. He practiced law in Santa Barbara for more than 30 years (with a hiatus during which he served as Chief Counsel for the State Employment Development Department during the administration of Governor Pete Wilson). Jim owned and raced a Mercury Foxy Lady, a Star Hieroglyph, and a J-24 Mixed Nuts, and owned, cruised, and raced a Cal-34 Aeolus. Jim won the SBYC Centennial Trophy (fleet championship sail-off) in 1976. In addition to holding various offices at SBYC, Jim served as a USYRU certified senior judge and a member of the SCYA Appeals Committee.
